State Examines Twenty-Six Witnesses and Will Rest Case To-Day.

Elizabeth City, N. C., September 20 .-The prosecution made rapid progress to-day in building up its case against B. F. Vann, who stands charged with the deliberate murder of young Oliver Layden, of Bell-videre, his intimate friend and business associate. When court recessed at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon until to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock, twenty-six witnesses had testified. There are still twelve or fourteen witnesses to testify for the prosecution, but Solicitor Ehringhaus stated that he expected to rest for the State to-morrow morning. It seems certain that a verdict will not be possible before Tuesday of next week.

With the exception of some details of identification and corroboration, the State has set forth the most impor-tant of the circumstances by which 't seeks to establish the guilt of the de-BROS., 615 Brook Avenue. Painting.

When Johnnie Byrd, fifteen years old, thoughtlessly caught hold of a chain dangling from an arc light yesterday hundreds of voits of electricity shot up through his body. Unable to let go, he yelled for help until he fell unconscious. The panic-stricken crowd on Main Street gathered around the boy all afraid to touch him. Suddenly Arthur Myers rushed to the scene and pulled the boy loose and was himself fearfully stunned by the charge.

Byrd regained consciousness under treatment. His hands are painfully burned, and strangest of all holes were burned in the bottom of his socks.

His legs are also scarred.

which opens next Tuesday, are far ahead of the opening day than ever before in the history of the society. All indications point to a great fair. During the storm yesterday light-ning struck one of the concrete poles exceeded by the Fredericksburg Power Company in this city, and the folt did no further damage than to loosen one of the cross bars and injure the wire. It is the cross bars and injure the wire of the cross bars and injure the wire. Frank B. Guest recently sold his handsome estate "Sndwden," near this city, for a fine price and went to California expecting to locate there, but he was not as well impressed as he expected to be and he has returned sell at public auction, in front of the courthouse, at Lexington, Va., that valuable property known as The Cold Sulphur Springs, situated in Rockbridge County, Va., about two miles from the town of Goshen, on the main line of the Chesspeake and Ohio Rallway. This property was for many years successfully operated by Dr. J. S. Craig as a summer resort. Several years ago the hotel was destroyed by fire, and it has not been rebuilt; there remains, however, an attractive cottage, which, with stables and other outbuildings, would make an ideal summer home. If the hotel were rebuilt its prestige as a summer resort could be speedily resummer resort could be speedily re-stored. The land embraces about 177
